Senior Software Engineer (Full Stack, Front-End Focused)

Full-stack Engineer with 9+ years building customer-facing products in TypeScript, React, and Node.js across financial services, Web3, and health & wellness. Product-minded, with a background in UI/UX design and marketing, and a love for teaching & mentoring.

FEATURED EXPERIENCE

Sr. Software Engineer – Daxko (SugarWOD & Exercise.com)

Remote (Eastern Time) - Jul 2022 - Jun 2026

- Acted as tech lead for SugarWOD's web app and Node.js backend (1.2M+ registered athletes, 30k+ gyms), owning technical decisions for web and backend.
- Led SugarWOD's migration from a legacy notification system to Daxko's new centralized notification service as the first product team to adopt it.
- Helped mitigate a critical security vulnerability in legacy code that predated the team, carrying out the migrations needed to apply security patches.
- Partnered with DevOps to migrate SugarWOD from Heroku to Rancher-managed Kubernetes, standardizing on the company platform to cut hosting costs & deploy times.
- Mentored two developers (one grew into a senior engineer); collaborated with and onboarded a newly added engineering team in India.

Sr. Front-End Engineer – Mem Protocol (now AKA)

Remote (Eastern Time) - Aug 2021 - Mar 2022

- Owned the Next.js/React/GraphQL frontend of a Web3 Q&A social app and decentralized identity platform, building prototypes across two product pivots to power investor demos that helped secure a $3.1M seed round (led by a16z).
- Collaborated with the backend engineer on the protocol's Solidity smart contracts on Polygon, contributing to the spec, design, and implementation.

Software Engineer (Multiple Roles) – Vanguard

Malvern, PA - Jan 2019 - Aug 2021

- DevOps: Created Dexter, an internal CLI automating compliant CI/CD and AWS deployments for 15+ client-experience teams.
- Full-Stack: Built the UI and APIs for an experimentation platform that let teams across the enterprise launch client-facing A/B tests across customer journeys.
- Front-End: Built components for Vanguard's enterprise design system and shipped UI on its highest-traffic pages.

Front-End Web Developer – Wolters Kluwer

Philadelphia, PA - Jul 2017 - Jan 2019

- Led the creation of a component-based, style-guide-driven development environment for NursingCenter.com and rewrote the CSS codebase.
- Designed and built scalable UI components alongside UX designers, .NET developers, and product managers in an agile scrum team.
